Overview

About Donna

Donna Rousseau is a member of the firm's litigation practice systems leadership team. In this role, Ms. Rousseau is primarily charged with leadership and development of the paralegals in the firm's Southern California office.

Ms. Rousseau's litigation experience spans nearly three decades, in all areas of civil litigation, with emphasis in construction defect, intellectual property, products liability, and copyright and trademark litigation. Notably, Ms. Rousseau's extensive litigation experience is magnified by having participated in numerous trials, Markman and dispositive motion hearings, in both state and federal courts in California and throughout the U.S. Prior to joining Fish, Ms. Rousseau worked as a paralegal and legal assistant for local and AmLaw 100 national firms.
