Overview

About Jessica

Jessica Hannon Carrier serves as the firm's manager of litigation paralegals. In her role, Ms. Carrier is chiefly responsible for the litigation paralegal business unit and ensures that substantive practice support tasks on matters are performed with competence, accuracy, and timeliness. Ms. Carrier carries extensive experience regarding the litigation lifecycle and strong, first-hand knowledge of business operations. Ms. Carrier leads the efforts to recruit, hire and train paralegals. Ms. Carrier actively manages paralegal staffing and utilization, participates in operations budgeting and financial and data analysis.

Ms. Carrier also still maintains an active case load. Ms. Carrier coordinates with attorneys on special requests and highly complex projects and has participated in numerous trials, arbitrations and hearings in state and federal courts throughout the U.S. Prior to joining Fish, Ms. Carrier worked as a litigation paralegal at an internet solutions company and at a medical malpractice law firm.
