

Joshua P. Carrigan

Associate

 Washington, D.C.

 202-626-7701

 carrigan@fr.com

Overview

About Josh

Joshua Carrigan is an associate in the Washington, D.C. office of Fish & Richardson P.C. He focuses his practice on patent litigation, including legal research and litigation strategy development. Mr. Carrigan was previously a summer associate at the firm in 2019 and 2020.

Prior to his legal career, Mr. Carrigan was a submarine officer in the U.S. Navy, where he served aboard the nuclear attack submarines USS Minnesota (SSN-783) and USS South Dakota (SSN-790). Mr. Carrigan saw South Dakota through its initial construction at Electric Boat Shipyard, including the reactor plant's initial operation at power. He served in various billets including assistant engineer, assistant weapons officer, operational safety officer, main propulsion assistant, and damage control assistant. Mr. Carrigan continues to serve as a lieutenant commander in the U.S. Navy Reserve as a theater undersea warfare watch officer.

Not admitted to practice in Washington, D.C. Work conducted in Washington, D.C. is directly supervised by a member of the Washington, D.C. bar or limited to federal courts and agencies listed below.*

Focus Areas

Services

- Litigation
- ITC Litigation

- Patent Litigation

Industries

- Academic Research and Medical Centers
- Aerospace and Defense
- Energy and Petrochemical
- Manufacturing

Education

J.D., George Washington University Law School (2021) The George Washington Law Review, Associate

M.S., Engineering Management, Old Dominion University (2014)

B.S., Nuclear Engineering, University of Tennessee (2011)