

Meaghan Luster

Associate

 Boston, MA

 617-368-2125

 luster@fr.com

Overview

About Meaghan

Meaghan Luster is an associate in the Boston office of Fish & Richardson P.C. She was previously a summer associate with the firm.

During law school, Meaghan served as an executive comment editor for the Boston College Law Review and an executive editor of the Boston College Intellectual Property and Technology Forum. Meaghan was a member of the Boston College Law School's Philip C. Jessup International Moot Court Team that received a Top 5 Memorial recognition in the regional competition, and Meaghan individually received a Top 10 Oralist Award. She also was the student director for her school's diversity initiative. Upon graduation, Meaghan received the Richard S. Sullivan Award—awarded to recognize one student's overall contribution to the law school community, service to the community, and outstanding school spirit.

Prior to joining Fish, Meaghan served as a judicial extern to the Honorable William P. Robinson III of the Rhode Island Supreme Court and a legal intern to the Honorable Estela M. De La Cruz of the Superior Court in Hackensack, New Jersey.

Focus Areas

Services

- Litigation

Industries

- Life Sciences

Education

J.D. cum laude, Boston College Law School (2020) Executive Comment Editor, Boston College Law Review; Executive Editor, Intellectual Property and Technology Forum

B.S. cum laude, Cognitive and Brain Sciences, Political Science, Tufts University (2017)

Insights

Publications

Meaghan is a contributing author to Fish's IP Law Essentials.

"DTSA's Ex Parte Seizures of Property: A Drastic Trade Secret Remedy," co-authored with Esha Bandyopadhyay, Fish's IP Law Essentials (2021).