

Peng Lin, Ph.D.

Associate

 Boston, MA
New York, NY

 212-765-5070
212-765-5070

 plin@fr.com

Overview

About Peng

Peng (Paul) Lin, Ph.D., is an associate in the Boston office of Fish & Richardson P.C. Dr. Lin's practice emphasizes patent prosecution and counseling, opinion work, due diligence studies, and patent portfolio development and management.

Prior to Harvard Law School, Dr. Lin received his Ph.D. in Human and Statistical Genetics from Washington University in St. Louis. Dr. Lin has extensive research experience and training in human genetics, molecular biology, biophysics, bioinformatics, and biostatistics. Technical areas of Dr. Lin's prosecution and opinion work include antibody therapeutics, CAR-T immunotherapies, TCR-T immunotherapies, transgenic animals, microarray technology, diagnostic methods, nanoparticle technology, vaccines, small molecules, medical devices, the application of artificial intelligence in the pharmaceutical industry, etc.

Focus Areas

Services

- Patent
- Opinions and Strategic Counseling
- Patent Portfolio Management

- Patent Prosecution

Industries

- Chemicals
- Digital Health
- Life Sciences
- Medical Devices
- Nanotechnology

Education

J.D. cum laude, Harvard Law School (2014) Member, Journal of Law & Technology

Ph.D., Human and Statistical Genetics, Washington University in St. Louis (2011)

B.S. with high honors, Biological Science, Tsinghua University (2006)

Experience

Kauffman Fellow for Bio-entrepreneurship

Languages

- English
- Mandarin Chinese